Tell us not in mournful numbers life is but an empty dream, When the lovely Summer girls are sweeter even than they seem.

"I am a Populist still," says former Senator Peffer the bewhiskered Kansas statesman. What kind of liquor does a Populist still turn out?

A Philadelphia girl broke her engagement with a young man because he was dressed too fine. We guess the fellow dressed so loud that she turned a deaf ear to him.

The Franklin county Democrats have renominated Editor J. A. Thomas, of the Franklin Times, for county treasurer. They know a good thing when they see it.

Roosevelt may wish to pose as a trust buster but he hasn't got the tools to go on a bust. The protecting ægis which his party throws around the trusts in a monstrous tariff law, makes Roosevelt's trust-busting outfit look like a pewter gimlet.

The Rev. Thomas Cox made the opening prayer when the National Republican Convention assembled at Chicago yesterday. This prayer was exceedingly short, as most likely he didn't want to ask for too much for a crowd that was going to nominate Roosevelt.

In several States the newspapers are making appeals for Democratic harmony. In the scramble for office the candidates of the party have blackguarded each other to a white heat. Why will Democrats permit their ambition to rise above the principles of their party?

Says the Lumberton Argus: "Elsewhere is found a sensible editorial from the Wilmington STAR concerning the labor troubles in Colorado. Evidently both parties are guilty of excesses. Organized labor when not controlled by conservative and wise leaders is a menace. But the action of the Colorado government is too absolute for this Republic to endure. We endorse the STAR editorial."

Police Court Yesterday.

Three defendants were fined $10 and costs each in the police court yesterday. Mayor Pro Tem. W. H. Yopp presided in the absence of Mayor Springer, who is in Raleigh attending the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Orphanage. The defendants were Henry Bell, drunk and disorderly; George Stone, plain drunk, and John Tharp, drunk and down.

MR. MILTON CALDER, CASHIER.

Elected by Board of Directors of Atlantic Trust and Banking Co.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Atlantic Trust and Banking Company yesterday, the resignation of Mr. Mitchell F. Allen, cashier of the institution, was read and accepted with regret. Mr. Milton Calder was elected to succeed Mr. Allen, whose resignation was to accept the position of assistant cashier of the Atlantic National Bank. Mr. Milton Calder is a son of Mr. William Calder, of Wilmington, a graduate of the University of North Carolina and a young man possessed of fine business qualifications. During the past year he held a clerical position with the Murchison National Bank.

Cape Fear by Moonlight.

Hardly anything is more suggestive of pleasure these torrid Summer-time evenings than a trip up the Cape Fear river on the broad, roomy decks of the steamer "Wilmington." The first of such excursions this season will be run to morrow night by the N. N. S. Society of Fifth Street M. E. church, and members of the society invite all friends to join them for the pleasures of the occasion. Music and refreshments will be features, while a view of the scenery of the upper Cape Fear by moonlight is well beyond the masculine powers of description. The boat leaves at 8 o'clock, and the fare for the round trip, including also a run down the river, is only 25 cents.

WILLIAM H. SHAW.

Highly Esteemed Citizen of Wilmington Passed Away Early Yesterday Afternoon.

FUNERAL SERVICES TO-DAY.

For Many Years Until Time of His Death Clerk of United States District and Circuit Courts—Members of the Family Surviving.

The STAR chronicles with profound sorrow this morning the death of Mr. William H. Shaw, for many years clerk of the United States District and Circuit courts, at Wilmington, and a good and useful citizen. Mr. Shaw passed away at his home, No. 211 Walnut street, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock after an illness since last April. Several times since he first became ill, Mr. Shaw rallied and his condition periodically gave hops of ultimate recovery, but each period of improvement soon gave way to other and more severe attacks, the last of which came last Monday afternoon and from which he never rallied. Week before last while Federal court was in session he felt that duty compelled his presence at the office and he came down for a short while, but it was seen then that he was very weak, and only one of his wonderful vitality and deep consciousness of duty would have made the attempt. His last attack carried him peacefully across the river, surrounded by his devoted wife and fond relatives, who had nursed him tenderly during his long illness. Mr. Shaw was a man of strong Christian character and a companionable man; a warm friend; exact, precise and imbued with a high sense of honor. It may be truthfully said of him that he bore malice to no man; was ever ready and willing to cheerfully forgive a wrong, and was deeply sensible of the rights and privileges of others. He was indeed charitable in all things and there be few among the people possessed of as many virtues as he. His friendly presence in the community and in the home will be sadly missed. The bereaved ones have the tenderest sympathy of all in the circle of their acquaintance.

The funeral will be conducted at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon from Grace M. E. church, of which Mr. Shaw was a faithful member, and the remains will be laid to rest in Oakdale cemetery. The services will be by Rev. N. M. Watson, pastor of the church.

William H. Shaw was born near Lumber Bridge, in Robeson county, N. C., July 5th, 1835, and was, therefore, in the 69th year of his age. He received his early education in the schools of his county and at Donaldson Academy in Fayetteville, of which city he was a resident for several years. When quite a young man he came to Wilmington and was for a long time a conductor on the Wilmington & Weldon railroad. Just before the war he was elected general agent of the old Wilmington & Manchester railroad and had headquarters at Kingsville, S. C., which was then the junction of the Wilmington & Manchester, the South Carolina Railroad and the Camden branch of the last named. When the war broke out Mr. Shaw was assigned to the volunteer army of the South in a company serving on James' Island. He saw active service in the shelling of the forts around Charleston, but his railroad experience early recommended him for the position of tithe commissioner and transportation agent in the commissary department of the Confederate army. Near the close of the war his duties brought him to Wilmington where he remained until the evacuation of the city, narrowly escaping capture.

Mr. Shaw was married twice, his first wife having been a daughter of the late Stephen D. Wallace, at one time president of the Wilmington and Weldon railroad and first president of the old Bank of New Hanover. As a result of that union three sons survive —Mr. W. W. Shaw, of Durham; Mr. Henry W. Shaw, of New York, and Mr. Walter R. Shaw, of Elizabeth, N. J. Mr. Shaw was married a second time in 1886 to Mrs. Kate C. Robinson, of Wilmington, and she with the three sons aforementioned survive him.

Just after the war until his appointment as deputy clerk of the U. S. courts, nearly 20 years ago, Mr. Shaw was an office deputy of Sheriff Manning, of New Hanover county, and was practically at the head of that department of the county government. For years, upon his appointment as deputy clerk of the U. S. courts here, he worked persistently for the passage of a bill in Congress making a full clerkship of deputy clerk's office in Wilmington—not for a pecuniary reward for himself, for the emoluments of the office were not increased—but for the good of the service. It was only a few years ago through the influence of Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy, in Congress, that his cherished hope was realized. Mr. Shaw was a faithful officer and his position as clerk of the court will be difficult to fill with the efficiency which he carried into the office.

Ex-Judge Thomas H. Sutton, of Fayetteville, a brother-in-law of the deceased, arrived last night to be with the family and Mr. W. W. Shaw will arrive from Durham this morning.

Mid-Week Dance.

Many young people are looking forward with pleasure to the regular mid-week dance in the pavilion at Carolina Beach to-night. Excellent music will be furnished by the Wilmington Symphony Club. Steamer leaves at 8 o'clock and 25c. pays for the round trip. All your friends will be there.

THE MERRY EXCURSIONISTS.

Special Trains Now Reaching Wilmington Daily by Twos and Threes—The Pritchard Memorial Party.

The Sunday school excursion from Lumberton yesterday proved to be the largest of the season up to the present time, more than 600 men, women and children having come on the special, which arrived shortly after 9 o'clock. Passengers were taken aboard only at Lumberton, and then the seven coaches of the train were unable to hold them all. The visitors spent the day in the city and on the beaches, returning at 7 o'clock last night.

To-day two big excursions will arrive—the 90th special train by Hatch Bros., of Mount Olive, from Goldsboro, and the Pritchard Memorial excursion from Charlotte. To-morrow two others will reach the city from Fayetteville and Martaville, S. C., and on Friday one by Fussell Bros. from Mount Olive to Wilmington. The Charlotte excursionists will remain in the city two days and will number fully a thousand people. The Charlotte Observer of yesterday says:

"The third annual excursion of Pritchard Memorial Baptist Sunday school leaves to morrow morning, 7:45 o'clock, over the Seaboard, and the committee expresses great satisfaction with their assured success. This excursion has, from the first year, been marked with success, always taking large trains, well filled with good humored folks, and unlike most excursions, has thus far been free from rowdyism in any form. This year quite a large crowd of people from adjoining towns who will spend a part of the Summer at the seashore, will take advantage of this trip. A certain portion of the crowd goes each year, the ocean seeming never to lose its charms to them. Among these are Col. H. C. Eccles and Mr. Wade H. Harris, who usually go together.

"As the proceeds of this trip go to promote a good cause, the reducing of the debt on the new church recently built, every one wishes the enterprise abundant success."

BOARD OF AUDIT AND FINANCE.

Regular Semi-Monthly Meeting Yesterday. Treasurer's Statement for May.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Audit and Finance was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the hour having been changed from night during the Summer season. Present at the meeting were Chairman H. C. McQueen and Messrs. C. W. Yates, S. P. McNair and J. A. Orrell. The business transacted was entirely routine. The matter of the North Fourth street paving was not taken up as was expected by several persons interested.

The monthly statement of the City Clerk and Treasurer for May, duly examined and approved by the clerk of the Finance Board, was read as follows:

Receipts—Balance from April account, $29,154.26; merchants license, $805 94; bar rooms, $2,008; market rents, $190.13; Mayor's court, $225.25; weighing beef cattle, $13.65; miscellaneous and extraordinary, $944 14; real and personal tax 1903, $1,980.19; real and personal tax prior to 1903, $1,763.92; dray badges, $10.40; costs on tax prior to 1903, $416.63. Total receipts, $8,445.79; total including balance, $37,600.05.

The disbursements during the month were $51,578.26; leaving a balance of $16,021.79, of which amount $8,908.53 is deposited in the Murchison National Bank and $7,113.26 was in cash and cash items.

FUNERAL OF MR. W. P. PICKARD.

Remains Laid to Rest in Oakdale Cemetery With Masonic Honors Yesterday.

The funeral of the late William E. Pickard was conducted by Rev. J. A. Smith, of the Baptist church, from the family residence at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning. A large number of friends and relatives of the deceased were in attendance, including members of St. John's Lodge No. 1, A. F. & A. M., who assembled at the Masonic Temple and went in a body to the services. The floral offerings were very handsome.

The remains were laid to rest in Oakdale cemetery with Masonic honors, Capt. R. W. Price, of St. John's Lodge, acting as Worshipful Master. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. J. B. Mercer, R. C. Merritt, C. E. Hall, A. W. Allen, Cuthbert Martin and R. H. Brady.

Locked up, Seeking a Warrant.

It was "hard luck," pure and simple, that befel Archie Blue, colored, who appeared at the police station yesterday morning at 5 o'clock and asked for a warrant for the arrest of his wife with whom he had a difficulty. Blue, however, was about fifteen minutes late, for his wife had preceded him to the station and procured a warrant for his own arrest. Capt. Williams recognized Blue when he appeared at the desk and told him the officers were then over the railroad looking for him but as he had put in appearance, he would serve the warrant forthwith. That was done and Blue was locked up. His case was continued yesterday on account of the absence of witnesses.

Yacht Club Opening.

The formal opening of the Carolina Yacht Club on Wrightsville Beach will take place Friday night of this week and it promises to be a most delightful affair. The chief feature of entertainment will be a dance in the spacious ball room of the club and a course of elegant refreshments served by Mrs. W. H. Northrop, Sr. The committee on arrangements is composed as follows: Commodore Jno. K. Williams, Fleet Captain John VanB. Metts and Commander E. Payson Willard.

CONVENTION SPARKS.

Greensboro Is Rapidly Filling Up With Delegates to the Great Democratic Gathering.

GOVERNORSHIP UPPERMOST.

Nothing Else Is Talked, Planned or Thought Of—A Winston Delegate Died of an Overdose of Morphine—Other Notes.

[Special Star Telegram.]

GREENSBORO, N. C., June 21.—Although the opening hour of the Democratic State Convention is thirty-six hours off, the town is already filling up with delegates. Old-timers say there is no kind of a doubt that the convention will be the largest ever held, and there is but one matter of interest—the Governorship. Now and then something is said about the platform, and occasionally one hears a surmise as to who should be named as delegates at large to the National Convention, but these are only incidents. What the delegates are talking, thinking and planning about is who will be Governor. Not so many Glenn men have arrived yet, but they have opened their headquarters and Glenn buttons and badges are not infrequently seen.

The greatest activity prevails at Sedman headquarters in the Guilford hotel and the Stedman lobby in the Benbow annex.

Developments to day have been particularly gratifying to the Stedman men. Manager Brooks talked to-night as if all his suspense had been removed. He said he was as certain as he could be of any future event that Stedman would be nominated. He knew of a certainty, he said, that of the instructed vote, the Greensboro man had enough to give him a safe lead. He calculated that Glenn and Stedman will go into the convention with very nearly the same number of instructed votes, and he is confident that Turner and Davidson delegates, seeing no hope for their own man, will forthwith come to Stedman.

Winston Delegate Died.

GREENSBORO, N. C., June 21.—John W. Morrisey, of Winston, formerly of Sampson or Duplin county, died in the Guilford Hotel to night of an overdose of morphine. He took fifteen grains. He and others came here from Winston to-day to open Glenn headquarters. Nobody knows why he took the morphine, but there is a rumor that he took it because of neuralgia.

Nay, Nay Says the Record.

The Greensboro Record of yesterday has the following to say editorially.

"As pretty a game of politics as ever was fixed up has been prepared for the convention this week, but it will hardly work. There is an effort, and it has been going on for some time, to get up such a feeling between the Stedman and Glenn forces that neither can be nominated, thus making room for a dark horse. It's a very pretty game, we repeat, but it won't work this time."

Cumberland's Advance Guard.

Yesterday's Fayetteville Observer:

Maj. E. J. Hale, member of the State Central Committee; Mr. J. B. Underwood, Jr., member of the State executive Committee, Mayor C. B. McMillan, Mr. D. A. McMillan and Mr. M. McI. Matthews left at noon for Greensboro, the advance guard of about seventy-five Cumberland delegates who will follow to-morrow to attend the great convention. The first two named go to attend a meeting of the Executive Committee to-morrow."

CROPS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Weather Bureau Report for the Week Ended June 21st, 1904.

During the first half of the week the weather over the entire State was too cool for the growth of all crops, and their progress was retarded slightly; but the latter part was warm, and all vegetation made a fresh and vigorous start. The amount of rainfall was deficient, especially in the eastern half of the State, where the crops in general are suffering for want of moisture. While the week was not very favorable for the growth of crops, it was an ideal one for all farm work, especially for killing weeds. Farmers took advantage of the dry weather and pushed their work rapidly, which by the end of the week was well up everywhere.

The wheat harvest is in full progress. About three-fourths of the wheat is cut, the weather being very much in favor of this work. The crop is excellent, and is considered the best for years.

Considering the cool and dry weather, cotton is doing very well. The plant is rather small, but has a good healthy color; chopping is about over, and complaints of lice are very few. The oat crop is fair in a few central counties, but in general it is not doing very well. Corn is being worked the second time, and is doing quite well in most sections.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The National Republican platform, as a matter of course, is platitudinous in Roosevelt panegyrics. The most absurd qualification of the laudation of the Acting President is the platform's "specific commendation" of Roosevelt "for his faithful adherence to the policies of McKinley."

McKinley's administration was conspicuous for its conciliation of sectional animosity. He was the first Republican President to make generous concessions to Southern sentiment and make the South feel that it was really back in the Union. Roosevelt followed that magnificent policy of the martyred McKinley! An asserveration like that is enough to make McKinley turn over in his grave!

McKinley was heartily and honestly in favor of that wise and statesmanlike doctrine of James G. Blaine, reciprocity, by means of which the inequalities of the tariff could be adjusted and at the same time safeguard American interests. McKinley favored revision of the tariff laws when the conditions made some of the schedules incompatible with the interests of the country and failed to conserve the real principles of the Republican tariff theory. Roosevelt in favor of reciprocity and tariff revision! A claim like that would make the man in the moon wink the other eye.

The platform lauds Roosevelt for "his fearless discharge of the duties of his high office." This in the face of the recklessness of his general policy and his palpable supererogation in exercise of the executive functions. His acts and antics are too fresh in the minds of the American people to remind thinking men of them

Roosevelt is commended in the platform "for the important part he played in the crisis of the anthracite coal strike, and for representing the highest ideals of American manhood." He butted into the difficulties in the coal region and the settlement was so unsatisfactory that the turmoil constantly portends a fresh outbreak of the strike. Where was his manhood when he failed to call down the Governor of Colorado for violating the constitutions of his State and of the United States in banishing men by military force, without allowing them to avail themselves of their right to defend themselves before the courts of the land? Where was this manly Roosevelt that, although called upon by the governor of Colorado, allowed insurrection and anarchy to prevail a whole year in that State, with assassination running riot and culminating in a horrible dynamite outrage and military usurpation? On the eve of a Presidential election, this manly Roosevelt staid in his hole. Even his wise (?) counsel was withheld when he could have spoken out for the rights and liberty of American citizens! He allowed the principle of liberty and the rights of men to be violated, and, for fear that he might do something that would jeopardize his chances for the Presidency, he was as mum as the great Spinx.

The platform commends Roosevelt's administration for mere executive and diplomatic successes, which any administration would have accomplished. However, the Acting President is glorified for the acquisition of the Panama canal in spite of the fact that the Panamenos "rose as one man" and Roosevelt denied that he aided and abetted them. The Panamenos tendered the the zone on a silver platter to the United States and it was a great transaction that the tender was simply accepted! Taking into consideration that Roosevelt denied that his administration schemed for the acquisition of the Panama canal zone, it would strike a man up a tree that the acquisition was merely an accident that happened or simply an accident that occurred while Roosevelt accidentally happened to be in the Presidential chair. However, the people give Roosevelt the credit for really carrying out a well laid plot in the prodigious, bloodless and successful revolution in Panama.

Of course, the platform prates about the "extraordinary prosperity" of the country, and contrasts present conditions with those of 1893, when the Cleveland administration fell heir to a panic from the retiring Harrison administration, brought about by unsound Republican finance measures and policies. History records that all right.

The platform gets extravagant in its praise of the President for his successful enforcement of the Sherman anti-trust law. His prosecution in the Northern Securities case was decided for the government, so far as the actual merging of competing railroads was concerned, but it was a dog fall that permitted the railroad schemers to carry out practically all their plans under that part of the decision which gave the company a fair field under "the community of interest" clause. That Roosevelt has been a successful trust buster, all that is necessary to do is to look over in the graveyard and see a whole ten acre patch of trust tombstones! Nit.

As was to be expected, the tariff programmme of the Republican platform stands by the few who are protected at the expense of the masses. The declaration that "no revision should be undertaken unless it is clear that the benefit will more than compensate for the disturbance of business, which inevitably attends a revision of the tariff schedules," is effrontery personified. This puts the people on notice that any attempt to revise the tariff will be construed into an attempt to disturb the business of the country.

The platform points to the prosperity of the Philippines and Porto Rico. The people in the Philippines have been aided in the most paternalistic way, but the country hears for the first time that with all the government aid they have had, that the Philippines are prosperous. Only a few days ago the American people were appealed to in behalf of the starving people of Porto Rico.

As a claimer, the National Republican platform takes the cake. With a good platform and a safe candidate, from the hands of the National Democratic convention on the 6th of July at St. Louis, the people of the United States will have a good chance to repudiate Roosevelt, the pretender, and his hollow-sounding, trust-promoting platform.

THE PRICE OF BEEF.

This a question which comes to everybody. It is getting to be a very serious matter, and is one of the most widely discussed of the problems affecting the cost of living throughout the United States. It is cause for complaint all over the land; hence this from the Norfolk Virginian Pilot is both interesting and striking:

Again the price of meat has gone beyond the reach of the poor, and even of the moderately well-to-do, so far as the prime qualities are concerned.

Of course there are plausible explanations. Cattle are scarce, etc., etc. And the Beef Trust is wholly innocent. It's the law of supply and demand that is doing all the devilment!

Now, the law of supply and demand, where it has as large an area for operation as this country, works gradually. It doesn't do things all in a minute. And the price of good beef jumped five cents a pound at one clip!

The contention that this was a natural rise is stuff and nonsense. It was an advance evidently agreed upon by the half dozen concerns that make up the Beef Trust and control the American market.

And every additional cent put upon a pound of meat is blood money. It means lank stomachs for the poor and bitter economies for millions of people.

In the meantime ample anti-trust laws slumber peacefully in the Federal statute books. The Sirenuous needs boodle for his campaign.

WATCH THE SILENT SAGE'S SCORE.

"Four years more of Theodore!"
Begone with such a song!
'Twould delight Old Nickgalore.
To hear it all day long.

Honest folk will surely roar
If you will sing the air;
'Twould fetch on a frost so hoar.
As to tousle Teddy's hair!

Wipe the floor with Theodore,
And shout for Parker, boys;
Just watch the Silent Sage's score,
And then turn on the noise!

— Sheriff D. R. Julian, of Rowan, returned on Monday to Salisbury from North Dakota with Thomas Broadaway, a white man formerly of Rowan, who, seven years ago killed Miles Reed, a well to do farmer of that county, and made his escape. Broadaway has been a fugitive from justice during this period, and was located a few days ago by a letter which he had written to a friend in Davidson county who being an illiterate, carried it to another person to read. He will be tried in Rowan court and the case will be hard fought.

— The North Carolina Bar Association met in Charlotte Monday evening and will be in session three days.

In the six day bicycle races the pace tells terribly at the end. Man after man falls out exhausted. The victor wabbles wearily over the line. In the business race it's the same. Man after man drops out exhausted. The successful man is often a dyspeptic, unable to enjoy success. When the stomach is diseased there is not enough nutrition assimilated to sustain the body and repair the daily waste of tissues. The result is weakness, tending to collapse.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect assimilation of food by which the body is built up with sound, healthy flesh.

"I have taken one bottle of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for indigestion and liver complaint," writes Mr. C. M. Wilson, of Yadkin College, Davidson Co., N. C. "Have had no bad spells since I commenced taking your medicine—in fact, have not felt like the same man. Before I took the 'Golden Medical Discovery' I could not eat anything without awful distress, but now I can eat anything I wish without having unpleasant feelings. Last summer our baby was teething and was so poor he was almost a skeleton. We gave him your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and now he is as plump and well as any child. I will speak a good word for your medicine whenever I have an opportunity."

CURRENT COMMENT.

— To give the assembled chiefs of the Republican party at Chicago a taste of its quality the Beef Trust has sent the price of steaks and roasts soaring to an altitude not before reached since the end of the civil war. The profits of this fat cattle corner are estimated to reach $3,000,000. It is a beautiful exhibit.—Philadelphia Record.

— Concerning some of the Southern Republican delegates, the Commercial unkindly says: "They have never been Republicans except for what there was in it, and ought to have little influence in any respectable representative party gathering." But where may one look for the patriots who are in practical Republican politics except for what there is in it? Roosevelt, for example, has long been striving for all there is in it, with motive purely personal, as all know.—Buffalo Courier.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The cotton market opened weak at a decline of fifteen to twenty-one points on the old crop and of fifteen to sixteen points on the new crop positions, in response to lower cables, generally favorable weather reports and continued selling for both accounts. Prices were rather irregular and as they worked downward there was more or less covering, notwithstanding the general impression that the weekly bureau report at midday would prove bearish, and after selling down to 10.35 for July and 10.10 for August, while the new crop remained relatively steady, the list rallied to within about four to eight points of last night's close. The gain was not held, however, and by midday the general list was at a net decline of six to eighteen points. At this level the weekly report was read. It proved less bearish than had been expected, indicating that the favorable progress of the crop had been checked by lack of rain in eastern and central sections, while there was complaint of damage by insects in several sections. This report caused a renewal of covering and advanced prices to 10.55 for July, 10.38 for August and 9.55 for October and December. The demand from shorts soon subsided, however, and was followed by another wave of selling at the advance, which seemed to come from local bears and the South. The market was finally barely steady under the pressure at a decline of eleven to twenty-three points on the old crop while the new crop was eleven points lower to three points higher, the gains being on the later positions. Sales were estimated at 400,000 bales, representing a fairly active day, as the market has recently been ruling. Trading continued right up to the close and the demand for spot cotton abroad had a depressing influence here. The daily weather reports were generally favorable, showers being noted in the sections where dry weather complaints are heard, while the forecast is for continued moisture.

When she says "NUMBER" You say "ONE FIVE"

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Raleigh News and Observer: Governor Aycock's engagements will make it impossible for him to attend the National Convention. It is a pity that the the members of that great gathering will be denied the privilege of hearing the South's most eloquent Governor.

— Greensboro Telegram: This week the great Democratic State convention meets. There is every prospect that it will create as much of a stir as two years ago and most likely a great deal more. Greensboro will be cordial and sincere in its welcome to the splendid body of men who will assemble here on next Thursday.

— Green Holcomb was struck dead by lightning near his home, one mile from Long Town, Yadkin county, while going home from the harvest field, June 17th, at three o'clock. Dan Vanhoy was within four feet of him, but was shocked for only a few minutes. Mr. Holcomb was forty-eight years old and leaves a wife and several children.

— Asheville Citizen: The negro is destined to be the political burden of the white man so far as the Republican party in the South is concerned. "The ties that bind" are too firmly knotted to be loosened by any attempts of the Lily Whites to free themselves of the clutches of the negro who has pinned his faith to the present incumbent of the White House.

— The cowardly assault on Editor C. L. Stevens, of the Newbern Journal, by W. W. Clark, a Newbern lawyer, called forth a resolution by the Craven county Democratic executive committee to the effect that the appointment of Clark as a delegate to the State Democratic convention was "unwise, unwarranted and not conducive to Democratic harmony, for the reason that this committee and the Democracy of this county have looked upon Mr. Clark as in sympathy with the Republican party, and we understand was so regarded by the Republicans themselves." The committee specifies certain acts of Mr. Clark in opposition to the Democratic party, and says it "does not regard Mr. W. W. Clark as a Democrat." A copy of the resolution is to be sent to the State convention.

— Fred A. Merritt telegraphs as follows from Washington to the Raleigh News and Observer: Among the visitors to the Republican National convention in Chicago is ex-Senator Marion Butler, of North Carolina, now a resident of Washington. Mr. Butler, as is well known, is chairman of the National Populist Committee, but if reports to the Washington papers from Chicago be true, he is now so familiar a figure at the Republican convention headquarters that one unacquainted with that fact would suppose him to be one of the main bosses in that party. The fact that Mr. Butler is a Republican is no news in North Carolina, but his bargain to deliver his party into the hands of "Terrible Teddy" will likely create something akin to indignation among some of the good Tar Heels who have before now been more than once deceived and betrayed by him.

— Last Saturday night, between 12 and 1 o'clock, a negro named Tom Love entered the residence of Mrs. H. M. Rogers, on North Main street, at Waynesville. When Mrs. Rogers awoke the negro was in her bed and passing his hand over her face. She sprang from the bed and gave the alarm. The negro was arrested and placed in jail. The excitement on Sunday was intense, and open threats of lynching were heard. Love was placed on the train and hurried off to Asheville in the custody of Sheriff Noland and three special deputies. The sheriff told the Buncombe county officers that the feeling at Waynesville over the occurrence was intense, and that it was his opinion that had he not taken the negro away there would have been a lynching Sunday night. The negro is 55 years of age, and has been working for Mrs. Rogers for fifteen years. He denied at first that he was in her room, but later his story was that he went to sleep on the piazza and thought he was at his own home.

— At Durham last Monday night between 9 and 10 o'clock the fire department was called out on account of the setting on fire of a merry-go-round, owned by Mr. Pride Lyon. The blaze was soon put out but not until the tent was burned and horses and organ damaged to the extent of some $800 or $1,000. From the very first it was evident that the fire was of incendiary origin and the police were not long in arresting Clinton Morris, a negro about 20 years of age. The evidence against him was conclusive. There were witnesses who heard him say he was going to burn the property and two boys saw him in the act. The tent covering the hobby horses is used as sleeping quarters for a negro employed at the machine and the charge against Morris was that of arson. He was committed to jail without bail. The evidence develthe fact that Morris was mad because he was told to stay away from the merry-go-round and he burned the property to get even. He poured some five gallons of gasoline on the machine and then applied a match.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, of Bentonville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had bronchitis for three years, and doctored all the time without being benefitted. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. Trial bottles free; regular sizes 50c and $1.00.

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION FOR WEAK WOMEN.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience Mrs. S. H. Newsom, of Decatur, Ala. "For three years," she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters, and the result was miraculous. I improved at once, and now I'm completely recovered." For Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist.

WEDNESDAY MORNING JUNE 22.

COTTON CROP CONDITIONS.

The Weather Not So Favorable the Past Week—Rain Needed—Boll Weevil Causing Damage in Texas.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, June 21. — The Weather Bureau's weekly summary of crop conditions says:

The favorable progress of cotton during the two preceding weeks has been checked during the past week in the central and eastern portions of the belt where rain is generally needed, and lice are extensively reported. In Tennessee and portions of the Carolinas and Southern Mississippi, however, the crop continues to do well, and throughout the cotton belt it is well cultivated, except in Northeastern Texas, where a few fields are still foul. In the last named State cotton has made rapid growth and is generally in fine condition but boll weevils are causing damage in a greater number of counties than last week. Good growth is also reported from Oklahoma, Indian Territory and Arkansas.

Transplanting tobacco has been delayed in Maryland, Kentucky and Wisconsin, where considerable remained to be set, but is largely completed elsewhere.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—A commission, consisting of Lawrence O. Murray, assistant secretary of commerce; Major General John M. Wilson, U. S. A., retired; Commander Cameron McR. Winslow, U. S. N.; Herbert Knox Smith, deputy commissioner of corporations in the department of commerce and labor, and Mr. George Uhler, supervising inspector general of the steamboat inspection service, has been appointed to investigate the disaster to the General Slocum near Hell Gate, in the East river, wherein more than 700 lives were lost. The commission will report at once to Secretary Cortelyou. The assignment of General Wilson and Commander Winslow to duty on the commission was made by the President at the request of Secretary Cortelyou. The commission's investigation will be entirely independent of the investigation shortly to be made by the local board of steamboat inspectors under the provisions of section 4450 of the Revised Statutes, which compels an inquiry to be made in such cases.

Danger of War Between Salvador and Guatemala—Revolution in Honduras.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MEXICO CITY, June 21. — Telegraphic advices received here show that there is danger of war between the Republics of Salvador and Guatemala, and that the troops of the two countries are marching to the border region. There is also report of a coming revolution in Honduras.

Many enterprises projected here, based on hopes of securing capital in the United States, have been given up or are postponed because of the presidential campaign in the northern republic. Capitalists and investors are showing unwillingness to take up enterprises until after the election.

STORM IN ATLANTA.

One Person Killed and Others Rendered Unconscious by Lightning.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ATLANTA, GA., June 21.—During a heavy rain and electrical storm here this afternoon, Mrs. Ora Bradley, wife of W. B. Bradley, a street car conductor, was killed by being struck by a bolt of lightning.

In another part of the city lightning struck the home of T. O. Jones, an instructor in the Georgia School of Technology, and Mr. and Mrs. Jones were rendered unconscious for some time. Both recovered. Several other occupants of the house were badly shocked. The street car system was rendered ineffectual for about half an hour during the storm.

A FATAL DUEL.

Two Gamblers at Marion, Ill., Shoot and Kill Each Other.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MARION, ILL., June 21.—A pistol encounter between two gamblers, fatal to both participants, has taken place here. Juer Meredith and John Barth, who had been quarrelling, came upon each other in a saloon. Meredith began firing on Barth, three shots taking effect. Although in that dying condition, Barth turned upon Meredith and fired three rounds. One of the shots hit Meredith in the mouth, one went through his head just above the eyes, and another through his heart.

REPORTS OF HEAVY FIGHTING DENIED.

Japanese Continue to Advance from Siu-Yen and There is Continuous Skirmishing.

THE VLADIVOSTOK SQUADRON

Russian Official Report of the Sinking of Japanese Transports—Conditions at Port Arthur—The Losses at the Battle of Vafangow.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 21, 2:21 P. M.—The reports of heavy fighting at Hai Cheng are denied by the general staff. The Japanese are continuing to advance from Siu-Yen and there are continuous skirmishes between outposts, but no further advance of General Oku's army has been reported.

The Russian losses at the battle of Vafangow are turning out to be heavier as the reports of the various regiments come in. They are now placed by a conservative official estimate at 4,000; but usually well informed authority expects the total to be no less than 6,500.

Conditions at Port Arthur.

LIAO YANG, June 20, (Delayed in transmission.)—A merchant of Port Arthur who has arrived here says life in that town is practically unchanged. There is, he declares, no shortage of provisions, and the garrison is in excellent health. No land attack has been made on Port Arthur but there have been frequent bombardments at long range by the Japanese squadron which is cruising constantly off shore. Dalny, according to this merchant, is occupied by a Japanese battalion. The destruction of the pier there rendered Dalny useless for the landing of siege guns.

Chinese arriving here from Vafangow say the Japanese losses in the fight there are 3,600.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 21.—According to an unconfirmed report the Russian battleships Retvizan and Pobieda went out of Port Arthur June 18th and returned to port the same day.

The Sinking of Japs' Transports.

VLADIVOSTOK, June 21.—Lying in the harbor are the three Russian cruisers which have just returned from their successful raid in the Japanese sea and straits of Cores. Vice Admiral Besobrazoff took the squadron out June 13th. The first day the warships were fog-bound. They reached the Corean straits June 15th, and were sighted and watched by a fast three-masted Japanese cruiser. Off Tsu island the Russians pursued a vessel resembling a yacht which escaped in shore. They sank the Japanese transport Idzumi off Koisu island. The Idzumi was bringing back invalided soldiers from Port Dalny, 105 of whom were rescued by one of the Russian cruisers.

The Japanese transports Hitachi and Sado were next sighted, and soon after the Hitachi, which was filled with troops, disregarding the signal to stop, put on full speed. The Russian cruisers thereupon opened fire on the Hitachi, crippling her engines and setting her decks aflame. Still the Japanese refused to haul down their flag. The vessel was then seen to keel over and hundreds of the Japanese jumped into the sea. They were all drowned. The Hitachi was then sunk by a torpedo.

The Sado obeyed the summons to stop. She carried 1,350 coolies for railroad work in Corea; 1,200 tons of coal, 1,000 tons of rice, railroad and telegraph equipment, a hundred horses and a large amount of specie. The specie was thrown overboard by the purser. Besides ten boats the Sado carried twelve rafts, each capable of carrying 100 men. As soon as the crew was ordered to leave the ship the coolies rushed on deck, filled the boats and headed them for the coast. Admiral Bezobrazoff sent boats to the Sado to take off the captain and officers. Capt. Oguro, twelve military officers and three Englishmen in the Japanese service came. The others refused to leave the ship. The Russians having done everything possible to save the lives of those on board, discharged two torpedoes against the vessel. A heavy squall broke at that time and hid the sinking transport from view. A three-masted Japanese cruiser witnessed the whole affair. The Russians caught her wireless messages. The apparatus on the enemy's cruiser worked incessantly and messages were recorded on board the Russian cruisers and were translated by some of the Japanese prisoners. One message read: "The Russians are in the straits. Run for safety."

The Russians vainly tried to catch the Japanese cruiser.

LIGHTNING'S WORK.

Two Men Killed and Others Injured by a Premature Explosion of Dynamite.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ATLANTA, GA., June 21.—A special to the "Constitution" from Toccoa, Ga., says:

As a result of lightning during a thunder storm this afternoon at the quarry of the Toccoa Rock Crushing Company, one man is dead and another is dying, four are seriously and several others slightly injured.

The men had just prepared to set off twenty-four dynamite blasts, which is done by electricity, when lightning struck the wires, and before they could get away huge fragments of rock were showered upon them. The dead are: Warren Skinner, colored, of Mount Airy, Ga., and John House, white, of Toccoa. Mr. Smith, of Winchester, S. C., was injured but will recover. A number of negroes were more or less injured.

MRS. NAN PATTERSON

Made Plea of Not Guilty to the Charge of Murdering Cæsar Young.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, June 21.—A formal plea of not guilty was made by Mrs. Nan Patterson to-day when she was arraigned in the court of General Sessions, charged with the murder of "Cæsar" Young, the book-maker. At the same time counsel for Mrs. Patterson served notice on the district attorney that a motion would be made for the court to direct an early trial for the defendant. He said the physical condition of Mrs. Patterson was such that it was a hardship to keep her in prison, and stated he would like to have the trial held in July. Judge Newburger said he was not going to sit next month and that it would hardly be fair to ask another judge to hear the case. He suggested that counsel confer and arrange for an early trial.

President Roosevelt yesterday received Cardinal Satolli, the special representative in this country of the Pope, in the Blue room of the White House. The cardinal was presented by the Rev. Dr. D. J. Stafford, rector St. Patrick's church.

THE DEATH LIST STILL GROWING.

Total Number of Bodies Recovered from Slocum Disaster Now Reaches Over 770.

MORE THAN 300 STILL MISSING

The Searchers Continue at Their Gruesome Work—Many Bodies Cannot be Identified — Coroner's Inquest—The Testimony.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The harvest of victims who lost their lives in the General Slocum disaster continued today. All through the night, despite the terrific electrical storm which swept over the city, the searchers held to their greusome work and early today the total number of bodies recovered had reached 770 and it was expected that every hour during the day would add to the number. It was hoped that identification would materially reduce the large list of missing before night. An alarming result of the developments of the last three or four days has been that, although more than 200 bodies have been taken from the river, the list of missing has remained almost unchanged. To-day when the total of bodies recovered exceeded 750, the list of missing continued well in excess of three hundred.

Many of the bodies taken from the river to-day were in such a condition as to make identification next to impossible.

Coroner's Inquest.

When the coroner's jury which is investigating the disaster to the Slocum resumed its session to-day, Daniel O'Neill a deck-hand on the Slocum, was called as the first witness.

O'Neill said he never saw any fire drill on the Slocum although he had been employed on her ever since she was put in commission this year. He could not recall that new hose was carried on board the steamer at any time. There were no life-preservers on the hurricane deck, he said.

O'Neill corroborated the testimony given yesterday that the store-room held paint, oil, old canvas and a lot of other dunnage beside the lamps. He said sometimes the room was lighted by a swinging lamp and sometimes there was no light.

The witness first learned of the fire when he heard the people shouting. When he ran to the hose, it coiled and burst when the water pressure reached it. He heard Flanagan shout: "Get another hose," and ran and got the rubber washing hose but the coupling would not fit the stand-pipe.

After that he jumped overboard and swam ashore. Replying to questions from the jury O'Neill said the flames prevented them from getting to the deck the washing hose after the coiled fire hose had burst.

Edward Brandow, of Catskill, the assistant engineer of the Slocum, was the next witness. For use in fighting fires he said they had a donkey engine for pumping water to the fire hose and to the water closet. They never had any other hose on the Slocum. He first heard of the fire when the mate, Flanagan, reported it.

Oscar Kahnweiler, a member of the firm which supplied the life-preservers, said he sold the General Slocum her original equipment of life-preservers in 1891. The last sale made by his firm for the Slocum was in 1895.

Mr. Kahnweiler estimated that a life-preserver, properly cared for, would last twenty years. Many might become worthless in much less time.

"I will show you one now," said the assistant district attorney, as he carried it dramatically and laid across the knees of the witness a dilapidated looking life-belt that was taken from the wrecked Slocum.

"I'll trust myself to that belt now with hands and feet tied," replied Mr. Kahnweiler.

Mr. Garvin tore the rotten arm strips off the belt and returned to his seat, saying, "That will do."

Coroner Berry announced that Captain VanSchaick who commanded the Slocum is in such condition at the Lebanon hospital that he may not be able to testify for several days. He tried to get out to-day, but collapsed. The coroner stated that the inquest would not be completed without the captain's testimony.

Edwin Weaver, second pilot of the Slocum, said the distance run by the burning boat was no more than half a mile, the time consumed in making the run between two and a half and three minutes, and the place where the boat was beached was the best possible place.

Weaver said he bought the deck-hose. He took a piece of the old hose to the store and asked that it be matched. He ordered two hundred feet of rubber hose at the same time.

Mr. Garvin produced the bills for the hose and showed that it cost sixteen cents a foot.

"Don't you know you can't buy fire hose for less than one dollar a foot?" was asked.

"I don't know anything about hose. I did what I was told and bought what I was told to buy."

Startling Evidence

Evidence of a startling nature, which doubtless will have an important bearing on the ultimate result of the coroner's inquiry into the General Slocum disaster, was forthcoming at the inquest to day.

Perhaps the most unexpected incident was the refusal to answer questions of Henry Lundberg, a United States steamboat inspector, who was supposed to have inspected the life-preservers and the hull of the ill-fated steamer. His refusal was based on the ground that an answer might tend to incriminate him and he acted on the advice of his counsel.

The coroner committed Lundberg to the house of detention, but later accepted $500 bail for his appearance at the hearing to-morrow, which was satisfactory to the assistant district attorney.

More Bodies Recovered.

By the use of dynamite and heavy guns fired by men from the Second battery, scores of bodies were brought up from the bottom around the shores of North Brother Island to-day. From sunrise to sunset the searchers along the beach and in the boats gathered in 112, bringing the number of bodies recovered to date up to the appalling total of 845. Of these 700 have been identified, and the missing still are approximated at something more than 300. Many of the bodies last found will never be identified.

PROHIBITION PARTY.

Prominent Leaders Say Gen. Miles Will be Nominated for President.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, June 21.— "There has been a wonderful change in sentiment in our party ranks in the last ten days concerning the presidential nomination," said Alonzo E. Wilson, chairman of the Illinois prohibition executive committee to-day. "Most all our prominent men have declared for General Nelson A. Miles, and I predict his nomination, probably on the first ballot, at Indianapolis next week. Sam P. Jones, of Georgia, or George W. Carroll, of Beaumont, Texas, will be given the second place.

THE REPUBLICANS IN CONVENTION.

Met and Organized, But Grand Climax Will Not Be Reached Until To-morrow.

TEMPORARY ORGANIZATION.

Elihu Root Chairman—Committees Appointed—The Platform—Some of its Provisions—Tariff Features. Strong for Protection.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, June 21.—The Republican National Convention, the thirteenth in the party's history, met in the Coliseum at noon to-day and organized. The grand climax, the nominations, will not be reached until the third day. Senator Depew calls to-day a curtain raiser for the more serious drama of to-morrow and Thursday. The curtain raiser was in itself an absorbing production.

Inside the coliseum there are about 8,530 numbered seats, including the bank of 350 rising behind the chairman. Above this terrace of seats hung the colossal portrait of the late Senator Hanna on a canvas 20 by 17 feet. Portraits of the president, with flags about them, were placed at regular intervals around the amphitheatre. A banneret of the Home Market Club of Boston swung near the roof opposite the chairman.

Underneath the rostrum and stretching the whole length of the basement was one of the most curious sights of the convention—the paraphernalia and the workers who communicated to the millions what the thousands saw. Into this space was let hundreds of wires, more than 500, that connect directly with the principal newspapers of the country and with the agencies that transmit news over seas. More than 100 telephones were working and upward of four hundred telegraph instruments. A thousand reporters, operators and messengers manned this intelligent machine.

Committee on Platform

The committee on resolutions met in the Green room of the Auditorium Annex Hotel immediately after the convention adjourned and organized by electing Senator Lodge as chairman, Senator Clark, of Wyoming, as secretary, and R. G. Proctor, of Massachusetts, as clerk.

Senator Lodge announced the following sub-committees to formulate the platform: Lodge, Massachusetts; Gallinger, New Hampshire; Lauterbach, New York; Dalzell, Pennsylvania; Foraker, Ohio; Hopkins, Illinois; Clark, Wyoming; Nelson, Minnesota; Hansbrough, North Dakota; Meyburn, Idaho; Blythe, Iowa; Beveridge, Indiana; Short, California.

It was expected that Senator Spooner would be on the sub-committee, but he was occupied with the Wisconsin contest.

Before confiding the work of constructing the platform to the sub-committee, the full committee on resolutions of the Republican convention listened to a delegation of women suffragists and also to Representative Bartholdt, of Missouri, who presented an international arbitration plank. The committee adjourned to meet at 10 o'clock to morrow morning and Senator Lodge at once convened the sub committee.

An application was made for a hearing by the Afro-American League and Negro Suffrage Association.

A peonage plank was presented by Delegate H. L. Johnson, of Georgia, as follows:

"The growth of a new system of involuntary servitude, in several States, without conviction through the courts, and known as peonage, appals the conscience of the country, and we commend to the Republican members of Congress the enactment of such additional laws as will effectually forbid and punish the same."

From the quiet, yet unmistakable enthusiasm provoked by Senator Fairbanks' arrival at the Coliseum, his nomination for vice president is but little less assured than the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt for President.

The key-note to the campaign of 1904 was sounded by Hon. Elihu Root in his speech as temporary chairman. His address was a review of the accomplishments of the present administration and a defence of Republican policies in general. When that had been delivered and the various working committees dispatched to their labors, the result of the first day's session was complete.

Another picture was presented by the opening day, so different from the customary convention scene as to attract marked attention. It was the failure of the delegates and the spectators to warm to the spirit of the occasion. Mention of President Roosevelt was responded to with hearty though not prolonged applause. The lack of contest eliminated the necessity for enthusiastic display of feeling and the mild cheering and rather listless hand-clapping, which was the greeting given impartially to national figures of the party, was all probably that could be expected under these circumstances.

The incidents which are destined to live long after the spasmodic demonstrations have been forgotten are Mr. Root's tributes to President McKinley. The temporary chairman spoke of the late President's administration of progress, of his gentleness of character, and those qualities so beloved by the nation, and in that connection said feelingly, "and with McKinley we remember Hanna."

A hush, almost oppressive, spread over the 7,000 or more persons present. The speaker had paused expectantly. As he started to resume the full force of the tie stretched between the two greatest of political heroes went home to the delegates. The applause started and in a sympathetic wave was carried to every part of the great hall. The demonstration was unlike any that had preceded it or that came after. An indefinable dignity was attached to the demonstration which seemed foreign to a political gathering.

The Fairbanks boom for the vice presidency flourished unrestricted during the convention proceedings. Its impetus was gained when the Indiana delegation entered the Coliseum and led by the two Senators, Mr. Fairbanks and Mr. Beveridge, proceeded down the aisle to their seats near the stage.

The ovation given Senator Fairbanks was greater than was received by his distinguished colleagues.

To day's programme of the convention was not of a nature to attract more than ordinary interest. The matter of greatest importance was the presenting to the convention of the proposition to admit the delegations from the Philippine islands and Porto Rico. Mr. Root asked for a ruling on the question of calling the names of the new possessions in the roll for the naming of members of the various committees. The convention ordered the seating and recognition of six delegates from the Philippines with two votes and two delegates from Porto Rico.

In the convention hall to-day there was one woman delegate who had the same right to vote that was held by each accredited male delegate. She was Mrs. Charles A. Eldridge, of Colorado Springs, Colorado, an alternate delegate whose principal was absent. Other women alternates present were Mrs. Owen LeFevere, of Colorado; Mrs Susan West, of Idaho, and Mrs. Jennie E Nelson, of Utah, these States having woman suffrage.

Permanent Organization.

The committee on permanent organization, immediately following adjournment of the convention, organized by electing Hon. W. M. Johnson of New Jersey chairman, and Governor George H. Carter of Hawaii secretary. No other name than that of Joseph J. Cannon for permanent chairman of the convention was presented, and he was accordingly nominated unanimously, as were all the temporary officials, with the exception of the temporary chairman.

When the sub committee met, Senator Lodge for the first time presented his draft of a platform, saying that it was intended largely as a basis for action by the committee. His draft included a plank strongly commending the established Republican policy on the tariff and presenting in terse language the necessity for maintaining the protective policy in the interest of American labor and American industries. Added to this was a declaration committing the party to a readjustment of the schedules if found to be desirable in the future.

There was a mild declaration on the subject of reciprocity and a pronouncement against trusts, but with a reservation in the interests of "established legitimate industries."

In this connection it congratulates the party upon the legislation on the trust question which has been secured since Mr. Roosevelt became President.

There were also planks dealing with the isthmian canal and the policy of the United States towards Cuba, upon which the Republican party is felicitated. It also contained a declaration in favor of encouraging American shipping.

A number of suggestions made by outsiders were considered, but none of them had been acted upon when at 7 o'clock the committee took a recess for dinner.

The great effort is to make the tariff plank a "stand pat" declaration and at the same time hold out a promise for revision "when necessary."

How to word the revision clause has been giving the Republican traders some concern for several days and the sub-committee on resolutions finds this the most vexatious question before it.

The sub-committee heard a representative of the Afro American League and Negro Suffrage Association in favor of Federal jurisdiction of the elections.

John M. Switzer, a delegate to the convention from Cebu, Philippine Islands, and a member of the committee on credentials, submitted to the sub-committee the draft of a plank favoring tariff reduction and ultimate free trade between the United States and the Phillipine islands. The sub committee's decision was adverse to the proposition as a part of the platform.

The sub-committee on resolutions adjourned at 12:50 P. M.

Chairman Lodge announced that the committee had concluded the platform and was ready to report to the full committee at 10 o'clock in the morning. "Not one word as to the platform," was Chairman Lodge's statement when asked for details.

The document contains about 2,300 words and was agreed to unanimously by the sub-committee.

The tariff plank as finally agreed upon, after an especially strong reiteration of the Republican policy of protection, announces a willingness to change the schedules "whenever business conditions demand the change." But the opinion is expressed that all changes should be along protection lines.

Guards Protecting the Levees—Plantations Overflowed and Crops Ruined

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SHREVEPORT, LA., June 21.—Jesse Hamilton, who is alleged to have expressed a determination to cut the levee at Scott's slough, about thirty-five miles north of Shreveport, on the Caddo side of the river, and to have started across the river for that purpose, was shot and killed by Tom Colquitt, a levee guard to-day. Previous to the shooting the guards were fired upon by a party of men who approached the Caddo side in a skiff, presumably for the purpose of cutting the levee. The guards returned the fire and it is thought killed or wounded one of the occupants of the boat. The high water has overflowed several large plantations on the Bossier side and the growing crops have been destroyed. The losses will be heavy.

SITUATION AT TANGIER.

All the Ships in the Harbor Have Landing Parties Ready.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

LONDON, June 21.—The "Daily Mail's" Tangier correspondent telegraphs:

"Two conferences were held to-day between the American and British ministers which were attended by the American admiral and the captain of the British battleship Prince of Wales.

"All the ships in the harbor have landing parties ready, day and night.

"Quiet now prevails in the town, but reports from all parts of the country are to the effect that the tribes are growing restless."

The "Daily Express" this morning prints a dispatch from its correspondent at Tangier which says that Raisuli has agreed to accept $20,000 of the ransom for Perdicaris and Varley in cash and the remainder in bills of exchange.
